1. The Central Control Committee<sup>1</sup> of the PZPR (Communist Party) is considering disbanding the Ministry of Public Security (MBP) and integrating its components into existing and new units. A Ministry for Internal Affairs, headed by Kazimierz Mijal,<sup>2</sup> is planned, and the State Council itself may supervise the Interrogations Department of the MBP.
2. Chiefs of large enterprises and institutions who are directly responsible to the MBP are being dismissed. In the future, cadre departments will be under the control of the Party secretaries in the enterprises. This change has already been instituted in Orbis and in the Ministry for Physical Culture (sic).
3. Jozef Rozanski,<sup>3</sup> who was arrested on 9 November 1954, made a full confession of maltreatment of political prisoners, among whom were Hebda Bartoszek, former high official in the propaganda department of the Party, and Zaworsk, former secretary to Gomulka. Both had been arrested years ago and were so cruelly interrogated that they were affected mentally.
4. Roman Romkowski<sup>4</sup> is under house arrest in Krynice, and the wife of Stanislaw Radkiewicz has been dismissed from her position as custodian of the Party archives.
5. The following former prisoners have been or will be released soon:
  - a. General Komar has been released and is now convalescing.
  - b. Gomulka's wife has been released.<sup>5</sup>
  - c. General Spychalski will be released in the immediate future.<sup>5</sup>
